

Paige Snedeker

Artist, Author, Speaker

Paige's heart to encourage others shines through her life and her presentations.

She utilizes her nonprofit, The Paige Project, to work diligently in raising awareness for Riboflavin Transporter Deficiency (RTD).

As a triumphant survivor of RTD type 2, she inspires others through her story and outlook on the future to overcome obstacles, follow their dreams, and see hope in the world around them. Her two children's books, Sofia and Her Morningstar and Camo's Journey are available on her website.

Her mission: To spread awareness of Riboflavin Transporter Deficiency and fund research through another nonprofit called Cure RTD. To bring God glory through writing, painting, and speaking.

Topics and Talks

Anything is Possible

Paige's inspiring life story is the focus of this presentation. In her candid and heartfelt way she shines a light to the difficulties of living with a disability. Listening to Paige as she relates her physical disabilities with her spiritual journey will invigorate your faith as you step into Paige's shoes.

True Beauty—Seeing Yourself as God Sees You

When the dark thoughts seep in, it's hard to remain confident in the individual you are. Paige understands feeling "different" and wants to share her story about how she sees true beauty.

How to Overcome Your Fears

Are you seeking encouragement on how to overcome your greatest fear? Step into your "uncomfort" zone as Paige talks about tackling fear. She will share how to never give in to fear and instead be courageous in a monotonous daily life.

Chasing Your Dreams

Paige knows what hard work looks like and hasn't been afraid of facing the obvious challenges that stood in her way. She has learned how to harness those challenging times and put them towards a cause she believes in.

A complete list of topics is available on request. All are suitable for a wide range groups, ages and gatherings. Paige is also able to customize her presentation to specific themes and events.

What Others are Saying

Paige Snedeker is a joy, a delight, and an inspiration. When she came to speak to our group, we were touched and spurred on to have a deeper faith. Hearing how Paige trusts her God made us want to trust Him more, too. I highly recommend her as a speaker.
-Courtney Martinet, Co-Coordinator, MOPS of Redeemer, Winter Haven FL

I met Paige when she took a Life Writing class I helped teach and facilitate. I would highly recommend any organization asking Paige to present her art, writing and story. I am proud to endorse her as an inspiring artist and writer.

-Bonnie Phillips, Former President of the Tampa Branch National League of American Pen Women

Listening to Paige speak is a hope-filled experience. Her incredible life is a living testimony to us all, and her heart-felt wisdom speaks to everyone, no matter the circumstances.

-Edie Melson, Award-winning Author and Conference Director, Greenville, SC

Paige Snedeker is one of my most treasured friends. Her testimony of God's faithfulness working in her life is evident each time she shares. She knows God has a special plan for her and is using her talent as a children's book writer and illustrator to spread that message. I highly recommend you invite Paige to visit your students in Chapel or assembly.

Her testimony will show them Christ.

-Bobbie Jo Hogan, Second Grade Teacher, Grace Christian School, Valrico FL

Paige is a dear sister in the Lord. She shows us how to rejoice in the Lord in all circumstances. Her commitment to the Gospel is refreshing in a world in desperate need of hope. Paige's smile and joy is contagious!

-Pastor Mike Sprott, Grace Bible Church, Tampa FL
